Spec Topics  "Law: View from the Bench"

Th 6:00-8:50p | Remote/Online | Brad Weinreb

Taught by a Superior Court Judge, students will gain an overview about our judicial system and discuss the unique challenges that judges face to maintain impartiality and ensure fairness in both civil and criminal cases. Students will also watch and discuss how the judicial system and courts are depicted in movies and TV shows. In so doing, students will confront and discuss how popular culture shapes and influences pre-conceived notions about our judicial system.

Sociology Majors:
This course will apply towards the Law & Society concentration.
